Anderson Takes Pity

NO NEW TAXES; POST WAR HELP FOR INDUSTRY

Sir John Anderson, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the closing of his fart Hudget speech in the House of commons on Tuesday, gave the nation this glad news: "Apart from minor changes, it is not necessary for me to propose any additional taxation."

In this "mixture as before "Budget — to quote Sir John's own words—in which 30,000 small traders will enjoy EP.T. relief and help for poet-war industry was announced, the fact was stressed that 52 per cent. of Britain's total expenditure will come from taxation revenue.

total expenditure will come "from taxtion revenue.

Although the duty on beer will be raised Id. per degree of gravity per standard barrel, the extra will not be passed on to." The Man in the Pub."

Although E.P.T. will remain at 100 per cent. for the duration of the war, 2000 small traders will benefit by the decision to increase all standards, except profits, by f1,000 as from April 1, and 10,000 will pass out of charge altogether. The full year's cost will be f12,500,000.

Post-war help, substantial financial st-war help, substantial financial Post-war help, substantial financia-elp to industry in carrying out post-ar needs, will come side effect where eace-time production comes. There is to be a 20 or cent, deduc-tion for tax purposes on all new planting in machinery for all, businesses for tax purpose of all new plant machinery for all, businesses uding shipping, and 10 per cent new industrial buildings, land ters, and farmers will get similar Normal capital expenditure on research is to be allowed over five years, or for the life of the asset, as a deduction from profits for income tax purposes. Si John warned the nation that grave dangers loom sheed if the tendency towards a general upward movement in wages is not kept in check.

The total expenditure to be provided or is 15,937,000,000 and the prospective deficit remains about the same as ar, effect of the increase in the n beer is that the Treasury takes he brewers have baved by the on in the price of barley during what the brewer have saved by redection in the price of barley during the past three years. A brewing authority told a reporter; "During the last three years the maximum price of malted barley has been brought down from 140s. to 100s. per cvt. The extra penny per degree of gravity is the equivalent of that reduction of price."

In the debate that followed Sir John's speech, Mr. Arthur Greenwood (Soc., Wakefield) said: "Atthough he has given us nothing, he has dangled a sort of prospective carrot before the dose of industry."

THE 1944-45 BALANCE

Estimates for the new financial yes

Expenditure: £5,937,399,000.

Revenue: £3,101,800,000.

Excess of Expenditure over Rev
£2,835,599,000.

(2.33, 190, 900)
A total of 27,094,800,000 is expected from taxes to be made up as follows:
Income Tax: 17,300,000,000.
Estate Duties: 1100,000,000.
National Defence contribution san Alexander Tax: 1800,000,000.
Other Inlaind Revenue Duties: 1000,000.

1,000,000.
Customs and Excise: £1,037,800,000.
Motor Vehicle Duties: £27,000,000.
Other receipts include:
Wireless Licences: £4,830,000.
Crown Lands: £900,000.
From Sundry Loans: £7,350,000.
Miscellaneous: £4,000,000.

Death of Miss Emily Hugher

Lianelly has lost a highly respected ditien by the death of Miss Emily Hughes, late of 12, Annesley Street. At one time s member of the said of Market Street School, she had retired many.

he funeral took place on Tuesday, Reve. B. J. Davien, B.A., Gross-Howard Williams, vicar of non, and Maryon Davice official-A short service was held at the of the deceased's sitest, Mrs. er Russill (none Victoria Rond, to interment at the Box Camelory, in hourness were:—Mg. Ewatt how (forther); Messr. Oliver sell (brother in law), Ronald (brother in law), Ronald

American Football At Stradey

A PLEASANT GESTURE

History was made on Saturd-writes "Nomad"), when America ootball was played by two colour-merican teams. The event are from the expressed desire of the Co can teams. The event arose he expressed desire of the Comng Officer to show their appreciathe hospitality extended to his y the people of Llanelly.

the gesture was appreciated nown by the excellence of the ance, as a result of which the ly and District Hospital will substantially. The arrangewere carried out by the Llanelly me Committee.

benefit substantially. The mental were carried out by the Lincelly mental were carried out by the Lincelly. The game naturally gave rise to many reflections. One was that the Americans believe in starting at the devertised time-fectated the Reds by 19 points to 6, but the majority of the spectators left the ground having no idea of the actual score. This was excusable, for although a This was excusable, for although a programme, the fundamental differences between the American game and the home product make it difficult to grow the American version at short other. Many of the spectators, altra con-

Many of the spectators, ultra con-ervative in outlook, found the American game disappointing in com-parison with our version. These persons should remember that without true understanding, or at least without a real effort to understand, there cannot be appreciation.

all effort to understand, unce cassions as appreciation.

It is this sort of mentality that sears the charge of insularity against the British. A moment's thiospit or an American our Rugby may be say inferior to the game played in the ISSA. A second thought, that it rould be unfair to institute a comarison between a game played by pembers of two companies in the Groces with a game between, say, arison between arison between the property of two companies of two companies between the property of the toughness of the game and of its characteristics. It was interesting the property of main characteristics. If was interest-ing to note, however, that while the basis of the attack lies in close forma-tion, with every member of the side being forewarned of his jobs of while the control of the control of the fact that they obtained scores through movements which savoured more of the rock and the scorer getting clear of the opposition in the classic way of our own three-quartas-it was natural that just the fact of the control of the control of the control of the control of the crowd, but it was equally obvious that, for the American spectators, what was really engrossing was the eternal lockying for position, the stern frontal attacks and the "short jabs" to break through, the ceaseless effort to lockeying for position, the stern frontal attacks and the "abort jabe" to break through, the casseless effort to gain the covered ten yards and so retain possession of the ball.

In other words, the American idea in the covered ten yards and so retain possession of the ball.

In other words, the American idea through the possession of the ball through the possession of the ball through the possession of the possession of the ball through the possession of the ball through the possession of the

DEATH OF COMPOSER OF "TON Y BOTEL"

Famous the world over as the author of the hymn "Ebennere" (Ton 19 fold"), Mr. Thomas John Williams, A.T.S.C., Andrew Street, died on He had devoted a great part of his life to music-making in the chapel, antire of Xyayamendwy, Swansea Walley, he spent many years as organist which we will be supported by the chape of the chape o contardaws.

Coming to Lianelly to carry on his neurance activities, in 1903, he was poolinted to a similar position in lou Chapel. In 1913, he became recentor of Caliaria, bolding the office or 18 years. At all three churches, a and Mrs. Williams received handware effits on their departure.

anghan Williams.

and Mrs. Williams celeigolden wedding in June, 19

monthly is extended to the v

WATER IN MILK

RURAL COUNCIL'S NEW CHAIRMAN

ELECTION OF MR. SIDNEY JONES CROSS HANDS

At the annual meeting of the Rur, strict Council, held on Thursday. Sidney Jones, Cross Hands, we cted chairman for the ensuing yea d Mr. Edgar J. Thomas, Ponthenry e-chairman year. All the members paid tribute to the retiring chairman, and extended good wishes to the new chairman. On behalf of the staff, the clerk (Mr. C. B. Hughes) associated himself with the sentiments expressed by the members. The new Chairman returned thanks

Our Soldiers Invade As Liberators

OPENING OF BURRY PORT SALUTE THE SOLDIER " WEEK

opened last S pressive parade Lt.-Col. F. H. I U.S.A. A

Lianelly on The Up-Grade

SPLENDID "HOME FLASH" GLOBAL BROADCAST

The Lianelly Choral Society, under conductorship of Mr. J. Edgar muss, gave a broadcast in the seral Forces programme on Friday rmono, which the B.B.C. flashed ctically all over the world—India na, Malaya, Australia, Irak, Iran, w Zealand, East Africa, Near East, stern Mediterranjan, South Africa, nelli.'

Llanelly Silver Band, con by Mr. Bleddyn Thomas the programme with th ducted by Mr. Heddyn Thomas, opened the programme with the popular march, "The Gladiators" (Dawley), after which Mr. Pickering mentioned that "the Llanely Choral Society is at least 50 years old, and has a fine record to its credit." "To-day," added Mr. Pickering, "it is still carrying on with the good work."

Some traditional Welsh music," hyd y nos," by the choir follows together with the News Letter.
The choir and audisnoe then gave impressive rendering of "Glin Geru iaid a Seraffiaid "to the tune "Sangtu and this was followed by the renderin of "All men, all things," by the chrom Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise The programme concluded.

OBITUARY

G.W.R. EX-INSPECTOR'S DEATH

G.W.R. EX-INSPECTOR'S DEATH

The death occurred yesterday (Wedneeday) of Mr. Tom Johas, of the Seaside Post Office, Marine Street, at the age of 73 years. He retired from the G.W.R. about twelve years ago, relinquishing the position of District Inspector of the Swansea area after 42 years' service. He joined the G.W.R. at Carmarthen Town Station in 1890. In a short while he was appointed signalman at Llanelly, where he became first class relief signalman, he was son promoted to Swansea as special class district relief signalman in 1908, and was still further promoted to digitrict relief
stationmaster, which poit he held nntil
June, 1923, when he was appointed
stationmaster, which poit he held nntil
June, 1923, when he was appointed
Station, being the first G.W.R. appoint. June, 1923, when he was appointed stationmaster at Swanses Riverside Station, being the first G.W.R. appointment at this Rhondda and Swanses Bay terminus since the absorption of that railway into the Great Western. He occupied that post until April, 1927, when he was promoted to the position of district impector attached to the Swanses head office. A member of Silosh Chaple since his advent to Lianelly, he leaves a widow, Mrs. S. Johns, and a daughter, Mrs. Anita Charles, sub-postmistress, to whom sympathy is extended in their sorrow. The funeral will take place on Saturday, as 3 p.m., interment at the Box Cemetery.

THE CHURCHES

THE CHURCHES

Remanued Chapel

The Rev. Esalah Williams, Cardigan, well-known minister of the Bapita denomination will officiate at Emmanuel English Baptist Church, New Dock Road, on the occasion of the anniversary services on Saturday evening and Sunday next. Services commence or Saturday at 7 p.m., and on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.

OOSSIP AND PERSONAL
The Russians Are Coming 1
The famous Russian. Cossacks are coming to Linelly 1. The world's most daring display will be given by these fearless riders when they visit Steboneath Park on Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20. The proceeds of this grand Russian Cossack display will be devoted to Ward 3 Overseas Fighting services Found. The committee are consident the public will raily round in taki fine venture on behalf of the lade and takes in the Forces, and trust the ticket sellers will find a ready response when they come, round. Besides helping the stand, the public will be able to see some face Lorevensnish; for which the Russian Cossacks are world famous.

Paper Salvage Appeal

Salvage collected in the borough in March, according to the Surveyor's report to the Roads Committee, and compared to that of February, was as follows:—Wastepaper, 18 fons 10, certs, compared with 14 ton 3 certs, ferrow metals, 1 ton 4 certs, (1 ton 6 certs,) textiles, 74 certs, (18 certs,) bones, nil (1 ton 14 certs,) is hicken wate, 13 (certs, total collections for March being 20 tons 15 certs, cestimated value £129, compared with 17 tons 10 certs, (estimated value £120, compared with 17 tons 10 certs, (estimated the first part of the first par

The report, continued, commented that although these figures showed an help to bring about the desired improve-ment.

The returns for the first time included kitchen waste, the collection of which had started during the last four days of March, when the distribu-tion of special bins for the material ad commenced. These bins were still being delivered to every bouse in the borough, and handbills gave house-holders instructions as to the type of material which should be put into the special bins. The public were being argently requested to read these instructions carefully, so that no deleterious matter was placed into them.

TWO CIRCUSES

The Borough Estates Committee, on Monday right, decided to let the People's Park to Paulus' Circus for June 5 apd 6; also to inform Forpett's Circus of the letting fee.

As the Town Clerk explained, Forsett's Circus had omitted to submit dates. It now remained to be seen the control of the tioned at the meeting of the Transport Committee, when the Deptity Town Clerk said that according to regula-tions all, passengers must obey the queeing order, whether workers and ordinary passengers. The workers and other holders of priority tickets were. however, entitled to be called by the conductors to board, the buses first,

QUEUE DODGERS

Anyone who refused to stand in the queue could not claim priority. They rere not allowed to just come along and jump on if they were not in the ments.

Drinking at Dances

What the Deputy Chief Co upt. W. Prothero, described mentable practice in local as referred to before the Mag

WEDDING

SPILLER-BLACKMORE

and Miss Edith Hunt was at the organ.

The bride, given away by her fasher, wore a sain beaute dress with cairfied a beaugest of pink reser. She was attended by Mrs. Donald idd (sister of the bride), and Miss Barbura Spiller (sister of the bride), and Miss Barbura page boy was Master Warwick Dean, of Cardiff.

GLENALLA CONCERT

evening.

The Clirhedyn Glee Singers, conducted by Mr. Haydn Henshaw, charmed with some intelligent and well-charmed with some intelligent and well-produced singing.

The artistes were Miss Nora Gruhn (soprano), Mr. Frank Davey (tenor), Mr. Tudor Smith (baritone) and Mr. Lymworth Harry (solo-pianist). The accompanist was Mr. Sidney Lewis. The first two are artistes of repute, and they sang with their expected quality. The others represented "local talent," but they worthily stood alongside the others, so well did they, too, acquit themselves.

Mr. Sidney Jones presided, and the xcellent audience clearly enjoyed the cellent audience clearly enjoyed the tertainment provided by party and

THE PALACE

"Now, Voyager" is showing all thick. Bette Davis has a rôle tha prasses anything ahe has done before the picture has emotion as its key te. Opposite Miss Davis is hand me Paul Henreid, whose rise to star Next Monday, Tuelday and Wednes ay, the popular trio, Frank Randle larry Korris and "Enoch" Vincen gure in "Somewhere in England," icture rich in entertainment value the same programme will pe Ra the same programme will be ogers' latest and biggest m estern, "King of the Cowlith ith a topical touch the Singing ye round up not cattle but a saboteurs. Thrills abound, ye puts over some Roy puts over some grand nev numbers, assisted by Bob No the Sons of the Pioneers.

on Welles and Joan Fontaine are urs in "Jane Eyre," showing all the stars in "Jane Eyre," showing all this week.

All next week will be shown "The Nelson Touch." and "The Golden Hour." In the first Randolph Scott heads a big cast in a story of the war against the U-boats. In the second James Stewart and Paulette Coddard, with Charles Winninger, fagure in a romantic connecty, with spectacular scenes and many hit tunes. A modley of fun and melody.

TUMBLE